

HIGHER EDUCATION EMERGENCY RELIEF FUND REPORTING

ARP HEERF III GRANTS

Until the U. S. Department of Education determines the process by which institutions may directly report the required data for HEERF III Grant expenditures, institutions have been directed to provide this information easily accessible to the public on the institution's website.

An acknowledgement that the institution signed and returned to the Department the Certification and Agreement and the assurance that the institution has used, or intends to use, no less than 50 percent of the funds received under CRRSAA Act and ARP to provide Emergency Financial Aid Grants to students.

Weatherford College signed and returned to the Department of Education the Certification and Agreement on April 15, 2020. Because of signing the earlier CARES Act agreement, an additional agreement was not required. The total amount of funds that the institution will receive or has received from the Department pursuant to the institution's Certification and Agreement [for] Emergency Financial Aid Grants to students.

Weatherford College has received $5,261,403 in student aid.

The total amount of Emergency Financial Aid Grants distributed to students as of the date of submission (i.e., as of the 30-day Report and every 45 days thereafter).

As of September 30, 2021, $3,495,000 has been distributed to 2,717 students.

The estimated total number of students eligible to receive Emergency Financial Aid Grants to students.

We estimate that there are 4,500 students eligible to receive the Emergency Financial Aid Grant.

The total number of students who have received an Emergency Financial Aid Grant to students.

As of September 30, 2021, 2,717 students have received funding.

The method(s) used by the institution to determine which students receive Emergency Financial Aid Grants and how much they would receive.

Method for determining eligibility:

Weatherford College has received a third round of student aid from the Coronavirus Aid Relief and Economic Security Act (CARES) to distribute in the form of Emergency grant aid. The College will utilize eligibility criteria set forth in the CARES Act Grant as follows:

If you experience additional expenses as a result of the Covid-19 crisis such as food, housing, course materials, technology, health care, and child care.

Full time students (at least 12 hours per semester) are eligible for up to $2,000. Part time students are eligible for prorated awards.

Eligibility requirements:

1. Education has been affected by COVID-19 pandemic.